LOOKING BACK:

As we recover from the COVID pandemic, we are enormously proud that our 2022 Season garnered many awards from The Theatre Association of New York (TANYS). So many, in fact, there isn't enough space to list them all here. Special mention must be made to several outstanding individuals: KUDOS to Directors Gabriel Pinciotti, Keith Prince, Dawn Perneszi, Sally Gladden and Harold Tighe; to Vocal Performers Heather Strauss, Mekayla Rayne, Julia Wyzokinska; to playwrights Harold Tighe and Keith Prince; to Actors Ellie J., Amber Schmidt, Gabriel Pinciotti and Julia Kehrley; to Technical Director Grace Summa. And huge thanks to every volunteer who made up our casts, built our sets, and did all the tasks necessary to bring live theatre to our community.

LOOKING AHEAD:

2023 will offer an unusual and entertaining mix of live theatrical productions on the new and improved stages of the historic Rivoli Theatre. In May, FOOL - an original, cheerful and illuminating work by local playwright, Ellie J. plus our Youth Theatre production of Simply Cinderella. Love, marriage, sibling rivalry, murder and wealth are hilariously considered in A Lovely Day to Kill Your Spouse in June. In July, relive the timeless, classic Musical, Lionel Bart's Oliver! August brings a hilarious, backstage burlesque - The Play That Goes Wrong. September shines with original plays in our 10 Minute Play Festival and crowning the 2023 season in October, four weekends of the wildly popular Haunted Theatre Tours.

SUPPORT:

With our dedicated Board and members, talented local actors, directors, stage managers, costumers, set builders, technicians, and YOU, we will keep bringing the arts to the historic Rivoli Theatre and will provide volunteer opportunities to anyone interested in any aspect of theatre.

Journal ads (see reverse) and production sponsorships (call Harold @ 845-807-7212) are the primary sources of funds which enable the Sullivan County Dramatic Workshop to continue its mission of providing and promoting quality Theatre, accessible to everyone in our community. Ticket sales are important but make up only about 15% of income.
